

A Guide to all academic resources at Stetson University!

BY STETSON'S HONOR SYSTEM COUNCIL

RESOURCES

Who are we?

The Honor Council is a student-led council that focuses on education and the promotion of academic integrity on campus. We investigate and serve as a peer hearing board in alleged cases of Honor Code violations. Focusing on education instead of punishment, our goal is to uphold academic integrity and honesty on Stetson's campus.

Academic Resources At Stetson

Writing Center	If you're ever lost on a paper and need help, the Writing Center is always a great resource. Located on the ground floor in the library, the Writing Center helps students with brainstorming, proofreading, learning to cite, resumes, science reports, finding credible sources, and a variety of other things.
Tutors and SPIs	Stetson's tutors are available to help with test preparation, studying, and class materials. Stetson Peer Instructors are students who already took a class previously that helps current students with studying and exam prep. Located in the Academic Success Center on the second floor of the library, they take both walk-ins and appointments.
duPont Ball library	Stetson's library has every resource a student may need! Of course they have books for every subject, but they also host the Writing Center, Academic Success, Ask a Librarian!, and the tutors and SPI's. Their website also allows students to access huge databases, journal lists, archives, research guides, and online books.
Ask a librarian!	Ask a librarian is part of the Dupont Ball Library. It is where students in need of help with researching can consult the Dupont Ball Librarians for help. The Librarians can help students with navigating resources and electronic resources and databases, construct effective search strategies, and identify sources for their research and coursework.
