

STETSON UNIVERSITY

Honor Pledge and Academic Honesty

This course operates under the university's standards for academic integrity. Therefore, you should familiarize yourself with the university's Honor Pledge, which is available at:

<http://www.stetson.edu/other/honor-system>

You must never misrepresent someone else's work, ideas, or efforts as your own. Every student should read and abide by the University's Honor system that was approved by the students and faculty at Stetson. You are expected to act honorably and responsibly, and you should not tolerate in others actions that are contrary to the honor pledge. Your presence here means that you are an integral part of the Stetson community—one that values integrity in all matters.

What Constitutes Academic Honesty in This Class?

Encouraged Collaboration

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| ✓ Discussing and sharing class notes with other students or tutors.                                     | ✓ Discussing the concepts taught in class with other students or tutors.                    |
| ✓ Working with other students or tutors through additional examples that are NOT assigned for homework. | ✓ Working with tutors to understand concepts that will help you to do your own assignments. |

Prohibited Collaboration

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| ✗ Asking another student or a tutor how to get an answer for any homework assignment or coursework. | ✗ Checking homework answers with other students, then erasing your answers and substituting theirs. |
| ✗ Copying other students' homework answers or giving your answers to someone else.                  | ✗ Borrowing a student's homework from previous semesters.   |

If Students Violate the Honor Pledge:

- On homework assignments or quizzes, they will receive a ZERO on the assignment or quiz.
- On any portion of an exam, they will receive a ZERO for the entire exam.
- On any portion of the final exam, they will receive a ZERO on the exam and fail the course.
- They may be reported to the Honor Council on the first offense.
- They WILL be reported to the Honor Council after the first offense.